Sir:

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE OF RELATED LITIGATION AND INFORMATION DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.56, as clarified by § 2001.06(c) of the Manual of Patent Examining Procedure, Applicant has previously notified the Examiner that U.S. Patents Nos. 6,119,107 (the '107 patent) and 5,946,669 (the '669 patent), two patents related to the above-captioned application, have been the subject of one or more litigations. By this Supplemental Notice, Applicants now notify the Examiner of continuing developments related to these litigations.

Specifically, the litigation related to the '107 patent and the '669 patent in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota (Civ. Action No. 02-CV-1321 DWF/JSM) between plaintiff Pay Child Support Online Inc (PCSO) and defendant ACS State & Local Solutions, Inc., hereinafter the "PCSO litigation," has been concluded.

In the PCSO litigation, defendant ACS filed a Memorandum in Support of Its Motion for Summary Judgment of Validity and Literal Infringement, attached as Exhibit A (with the redaction of confidential portions). The motion alleged that the '669 and '107 patents were not invalid and that certain asserted claims were literally infringed. In response, plaintiff PCSO and counter-defendants King, PSI, and Hill filed a Memorandum of Law Opposing Motion for Summary Judgment, attached as Exhibit B (with the redaction of confidential portions). In reply, defendant ACS filed a Reply Memorandum in Support of its Motion for Summary Judgment, attached as Exhibit C (with the redaction of confidential portions). Following a summary judgment hearing on November 14, 2003, the court subsequently requested supplemental briefing on the issue of obviousness in an Order attached as Exhibit D. In response to the court's request, defendant ACS filed a Supplemental Brief on Obviousness in Support of its Motion for Summary Judgment, attached as Exhibit E, and plaintiff PCSO and counter-defendants King, PSI, and Hill filed a Brief Regarding Obviousness, attached as Exhibit F. Following the filing of the supplemental briefs, defendant ACS also filed a Response to the New Issues Raised in PCSO's Supplemental Brief on Obviousness, attached as Exhibit G, and plaintiff PCSO and counter-defendants King, PSI, and Hill filed a Response to New Issues Raised by ACS, attached as Exhibit H.

On April 5, 2004, the court issued a ruling on the motion for summary judgment, attached as Exhibit I. The court found that the asserted claims were literally infringed. The court also found no anticipation under § 102.

On July 22, 2004, PCSO and ACS filed a Joint Motion for Entry of Order of Judgment, attached as Exhibit J. In the Joint Motion, PCSO, King, PSI, and Hill agreed that the '669 and '107 patents are valid and enforceable. Notably, they admitted that they had no basis for alleging invalidity and that they are not aware of any prior art that would invalidate any claim of either the '669 patent or the '107 patent.

On July 28, 2004, the Court issued an Order of Judgment, attached as Exhibit K, holding that, among other things, the '669 and '107 patents are valid and enforceable. These findings were confirmed by the Final Judgment issued on July 29, 2004, attached as Exhibit L.
